Special Modi Script Course

MODI was one of the most important scripts of medieval Maharashtra. Earlier, in Maharashtra, documents regarding Land Revenue, Judiciary, Justice, Donation of Land (Dan-Patra), Religious matters, Property matters (e.g. matters between brothers), Jahagir watan, Military orders (Farman) etc. were written in MODI. Research of these medieval documents is not possible without having proper knowledge of MODI script. Department of History has been conducting classes on MODI script writing since 2009. Prof. Girish Mandke from Deccan College who is an expert in MODI script was appointed as a teacher. Prof. Shruti Bhatkhande, Head of History Department is the coordinator of this activity. Every year there is a very good response to this course. The participants include students (school & college students) along with engineers, chartered accountants; architects, lawyers etc. The course is designed with the aim of promoting research of historical documents which in turn will put more light on the unknown history. The course was started as an Institutional Social Responsibility promoting the preservation of ancient script.
